THE ONE THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-THIRD

ACT

OF THE PARLIAMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA ENTITLED

UNIVERSITY FOR DEVELOPMENT STUDIES ACT, 2025

AN ACT to establish the University for Development Studies and to provide for related matters.

DATE OF ASSENT: 25th July, 2025.

PASSED by Parliament and assented to by the President:

University for Development Studies

Establishment of the University for Development Studies

1. (1) There is established by this Act, the University for Development Studies as a body corporate.

(2) For the performance of the functions of the University, the University may acquire and hold property, dispose of property and enter into a contract or any other related transaction.

(3) Where there is a hindrance to the acquisition of land, the land may be acquired for the University under the Land Act, 2020 (Act 1036) and the cost shall be borne by the University.

Act 1143 University for Development Studies Act, 2025

Aims of the University

2. (1) The aims of the University are to
- (a) provide higher education to persons suitably qualified and capable of benefitting from higher education;
 - (b) undertake research and promote the advancement and dissemination of knowledge and the application of the knowledge to the needs and aspirations of the people of Ghana; and
 - (c) blend the academic world with the community in order to provide constructive interaction between the academic world and the community for the total development of northern Ghana in particular and the country as a whole.
- (2) For the purpose of achieving the aims of the University under subsection (1), the University shall
- (a) emphasise studies in
 - (i) agricultural science;
 - (ii) medical health and allied health sciences;
 - (iii) sustainable development studies;
 - (iv) social sciences and humanities;
 - (v) business studies; and
 - (vi) engineering science;
 - (b) train students in methods of critical and independent thinking to create awareness of the responsibility of students to use education for the general good of the Ghanaian society;
 - (c) undertake research and provide practical training in the subjects taught, particularly subjects which relate to agriculture, social sciences, economics, health, environment and culture and shall, in the training, use and rely on materials available in the northern part of the country in particular and the country in general;
 - (d) disseminate the knowledge acquired through the teaching and work of the University through extension services, publication of books, journals, papers and any other suitable means;
 - (e) develop and maintain a close relationship with the people of the northern part of the country in particular and the rest of the country in general; and

(f) make higher education equally accessible to all on the basis of capacity by every appropriate means.

(3) In furtherance of paragraph (f) of subsection (2), the University shall ensure that the proportion of fee-paying students at any time does not exceed the percentage approved by the Ghana Tertiary Education Commission in consultation with the Minister.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (1), “community” means a rural or peri-urban village or town of not more than five hundred households used as a laboratory where the University has placed students to live with the people, study the problems faced by the people and recommend interventions to solve the problems.

Campuses of the University

3. (1) The University shall have campuses in Tamale, Nyankpala, Choggu and Yendi in the Northern Region.

(2) The main campus of the University shall be in Tamale.

(3) The University may, subject to approval from the Ghana Tertiary Education Commission, establish a campus in any other place that the Council may determine.

Award of degrees, diplomas and certificates

4. (1) The University shall, in accordance with subsection (8) of section 14,

(a) award degrees, diplomas and certificates; and

(b) confer honorary degrees.

(2) The University may withdraw a degree, a diploma or a certificate that the University has awarded if the University has evidence that proves that

(a) the degree, diploma or certificate was obtained through fraud or academic malpractice; or

(b) the process of acquiring the degree, diploma or certificate was tainted by an act that, in the opinion of the University, undermines the integrity of the award.

Governance of the University

University Council

Act 1143 University for Development Studies Act, 2025

General powers of the Council

7. (1) Subject to this Act, the Council may act or provide for any matter in relation to the University which the Council considers necessary or expedient.

(2) The conferment of particular powers on the Council by other provisions of this Act shall not limit the generality of this section.

Tenure of office of members of the Council

8. (1) A member of the Council, other than the Vice-Chancellor, shall hold office for a term of three years and is eligible for re-appointment for another term only.

(2) Where a member of the Council, other than the Vice-Chancellor, is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council without reasonable cause, the office of that member shall become vacant.

(3) A member of the Council, other than the Vice-Chancellor, may resign from office in writing, addressed to the President through the Minister.

(4) The President may, in writing, revoke the appointment of a member of the Council for inability to perform the functions of that member, for stated misconduct or for any other just cause.

(5) Where the office of a member becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation or the absence of the member for three consecutive meetings of the Council without reasonable cause, another person nominated by the relevant body shall be appointed to serve for the unexpired term of the office of that member.

Meetings of the Council

9. (1) The Council shall meet at least four times in each academic year for the conduct of business at a time and place determined by the chairperson.

(2) The quorum for a meeting of the Council is nine members.

(3) The chairperson shall preside at a meeting of the Council and in the absence of the chairperson, members of the Council shall elect one of the nominees of the Government present to preside.

(4) Matters before the Council shall be decided by consensus or by a majority of the members present and voting and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(5) The Council may co-opt a person to attend and participate in a meeting of the Council, but a co-opted person is not entitled to vote at the meeting.

(6) The Pro Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar and the Director of Finance shall attend meetings of the Council but are not entitled to vote.

(7) The proceedings of the Council are not invalidated by reason of a vacancy among the members or by a defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.

(8) Subject to this section, the Council may, by Statutes of the University, determine the procedure for the meetings of the Council.

Disclosure of interest

10. (1) A member of the Council who has an interest in a matter for consideration

- (a) shall disclose, in writing, the nature of the interest and the disclosure shall form part of the record of the consideration of the matter; and
- (b) is disqualified from being present at or participating in the deliberations on or determination of the Council in respect of the matter.

(2) A member ceases to be a member of the Council if that member has an interest in a matter before the Council and

- (a) fails to disclose the interest; or
- (b) is present at or participates in the deliberations on the matter.

(3) Without limiting any further cause of action that may be instituted against a member of the Council, the Council shall, in addition to the revocation of the appointment of the member, recover any benefit derived by a member who contravenes subsection (1).

Establishment of committees

11. (1) For the purpose of achieving the aims of the University, the Council may establish committees that consist of members or non-members of the Council or both to perform a function of the Council.

(2) A committee that consists entirely of non-members of the Council is advisory only.

Act 1143 University for Development Studies Act, 2025
